based on a hybrid of latin and early Welsh language.

The font is as it was in 9th Century South Wales, United Kingdom, Europe. Letters which did not exist in alphabet are indicated by a 'typo' mark. @ key reveals is the signature of the unknown 9th century writer and $ refers to the matter the text refers to in the Surrexit Memorandum.

There was no distinction between upper and lower cap letters. Welsh letters such as 'LL' were written in later texts.
